

Alan Petroff is Principal Technologist at Time Domain. In this role he has two main responsibilities. He introduces the technology to commercial, industrial, governmental and academic users. He also assists end users in evaluating specific applications. Alan is also the Hardware Product Manager for Time Domain's platforms. He received his BSEE from Cornell University in 1974 and holds approximately 20 patents.